RIVERSIDE TEENS TO BE RECOGNIZED FOR LEADERSHIP

RIVERSIDE, Calif. – Teens that have demonstrated leadership in the classroom and beyond will be recognized in an afternoon of inspiring stories as Riverside's Mayor Rusty Bailey and the City Council honor Riverside's 25 Most Remarkable Teens on Tues, May 21 4:00 – 5:00 p.m. in the Riverside City Council Chambers, 3900 Main Street.

Mayor Bailey said, "These teens represent a future generation of leaders in Riverside. They have a unique spirit, drive and focus that sets them apart from their peers. We appreciate their hard work, their families who support them and look forward to their contributions to our city in the future."

Presenting this year's recipients of the Riverside's 25 Most Remarkable Teens are members of the Riverside Youth Council. Through nominations by principals, educators, counselors and community leaders, the Riverside Council selects students to be named as the 25 Most Remarkable Teens. The Riverside Youth Council received nominations and through a careful review process selected 25 teens in various categories.
